

The main objective of this discipline is to train skillful technicians for the operating rooms.

Within a duration of normally 4 years the applicants of this branch of medical sciences will become competent enough to effectively act at operating rooms.

Details of units to be passed:

General 22

Basic and Specialized 74

Internship 18

Field Internship 16

Total units 130